IT'S A REAL WU DONE IT

Anthony Fauci has denied that the US funded "gain of function" research at the Wuhan lab — manipulating viruses to make them more transmittable. But records obtained by The Intercept show such work was possible.

Records suggest Fauci lied about virus funding

It's Official: Dr. Fauci Is A Liar!!

St. Anthony Fauci just lost his halo.

For more than a year, the media has hailed our kindly scientist grandfather as some sort of infallible holy figure.

But new reporting casts doubt on Fauci's insistence that no US money went to "gain-of-function" research — where scientists manipulate viruses, often making them more transmittable, to study their effects and develop treatments.

Records acquired by The Intercept detail grants that the US government's scientific agencies gave to an outfit called EcoHealth Alliance, which funneled some of that money to research at the Wuhan Institute of Virology in China. One clause in the contract says that “prior to altering mutant viruses,” the NIAID needed a “detailed description” of the proposed changes. Work on coronaviruses “must be submitted to NIAID for review and approval.”

The NIAID is the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, of which Anthony Fauci is the director.

In May, Fauci insisted that the US “has not ever and does not now fund gain-of-function research in the Wuhan Institute of Virology.”

Perhaps he defines “gain-of-function” so narrowly that altering mutant viruses doesn’t count, but Sen. Rand Paul \(R-Ky.\) certainly doesn’t, tweeting, “Surprise, surprise — Fauci lied again.”

Fauci's coziness with Wuhan lab associates has left him compromised again and again. After the COVID outbreak, Peter Daszak, president of EcoHealth, scrambled to get scientists — including Fauci — to publicly denounce the idea that the virus leaked from the Wuhan lab. Daszak's efforts paid off when Facebook and other social networks censored any allegation against the lab as "false."

Eventually, the lab-leak theory became too likely to ignore — but at that point, months later, China had destroyed most of the evidence and dodged international disgrace.

Fauci has been an impediment to knowing the true story of COVID-19. It's obvious he's prioritized funding and research over accountability.

Congress should call Fauci on the carpet to explain under oath exactly what he knows about EcoHealth and Wuhan. And then, as we've said before, he needs to go. He's undermined the trust needed to successfully fight the pandemic. A vaccinated society needs to move on. And it needs to know the truth.
