OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE: JOE BIDEN 'LIED' AT LEAST 16 TIMES ABOUT FAMILY BUSINESS

President Joe Biden “lied” at least 16 times about his family’s elaborate business schemes, the House Oversight Committee recounted Thursday.

The committee says Joe Biden lied in five different ways about his family’s foreign business endeavors: 1) That Joe Biden never spoke to his family about their business dealings; 2) His family did not receive $1 million through a third party; 3) Hunter Biden never made money in China; 4) Hunter Biden’s dealings were ethical; 5) and his son did nothing wrong.

Below are the 16 examples.

Joe Biden on not talking to his son about his business dealings:

1) August 28, 2019

Joe Biden: “First of all, I have never discussed with my son, or my brother, or anyone else, anything having to do with their businesses, period. What I will do is the same thing we did in our administration. There will be an absolute wall between the personal and private, and the government. There wasn’t any hint of scandal at all when we were there. And I will impose the same kind of strict, strict rules. That is why I have never talked with my son or my brother, or anyone else in the distant family about their business interests, period.”

2) September 21, 2019

Reporter: “Have you ever spoken to your son about his overseas business dealings?”

Joe Biden: “I’ve never spoken to my son about his overseas business dealings.”

statement that you did not discuss any of your son's overseas business dealings?"

Joe Biden: "Yes, I stand by that statement."

The House Oversight Committee announced it has subpoenaed Devon Archer (highlighted in red), a Biden family associate. (Tucker Carlson Tonight)

4) October 9, 2019

Joe Biden: "I don't discuss business with my son. I didn't know that was the case when in fact I found out after the fact. And I don't discuss things with my son or my family because I don't want to have any knowledge of any, I don't want to be accused of well you talk with your son, you talk with your whomever."

5) October 15, 2019

Joe Biden: "I never discussed a single thing with my son about anything having do with Ukraine. No one has indicated I have. We've always kept

6) October 16, 2019

Joe Biden: “I never discussed with my son anything having to do with what was going on in Ukraine. That’s a fact.”

7) October 27, 2019

Joe Biden: “I’ve never discussed my business or their business, my sons and daughters. And I’ve never discussed them because they know where I have to do my job and that’s it.”

8) October 29, 2019

Joe Biden: “I’ve never discussed my son’s business with him.”

9) April 5, 2022

Reporter: “The President has said that he never spoke to his son about his overseas business dealings. Is that still the case?”

Jen Psaki: “Yes.”

10) June 26, 2023

Reporter: “Did you lie about never speaking to Hunter about his business dealings?”

President Biden: “No.”

11) August 9, 2023

Reporter: “There’s this testimony now where one of your son’s former business associates is claiming that you were on speakerphone a lot with them talking business. Is that what?”

President Biden: “I never talked business with anybody, and I knew you’d have a lousy question.”

Joe Biden on his family receiving over $1 million in payments from China through an associate:

12) March 20, 2023

Reporter: “Any reaction to House GOP’s memo about your family’s dealings [...] revealing that Hunter Biden’s business associates sent over $1 million to three of your family members?”

President Biden: “That’s not true.”

Joe Biden on Hunter Biden making money from China:

13) October 22, 2020

Joe Biden: “My son has not made money, in terms of thing about, what are you talking about? China. The only guy who made money in China is [President Trump].”

Joe Biden on his son’s business dealings being ethical:

14) October 22, 2020

Moderator: “There have been questions about the work your son has done in China and for a Ukrainian energy company when you were vice president. In retrospect, was anything about those relationships inappropriate or unethical?”

Joe Biden: “Nothing was unethical.”

Joe Biden on his son doing nothing wrong:

15) October 27, 2019

Joe Biden: “And it turns out, [Hunter] didn’t do a single thing wrong as everybody has investigated.”

16) December 8, 2019

Reporter: “So you think that everything that happened was kosher?”

Joe Biden: “You know that there’s not one single bit of evidence. Not one little, tiny bit to suggest that anything done was wrong.”

Former Ukraine prosecutor makes explosive claims against Joe and Hunter Biden in new interview

White House says Shokin not credible, was fired for being too soft on corruption

By Thomas Catenacci · Fox News

fired because then-Vice President Biden and Hunter were bribed. Former Ukrainian President Petro Poroshenko ousted Shokin in 2016 – he was hired a year prior – due to Shokin's alleged corruption and pressure from the U.S. government led by Biden.

"I have said repeatedly in my previous interviews that Poroshenko fired me at the insistence of the then Vice President Biden because I was investigating Burisma," Shokin said in the interview.

"[Poroshenko] understood and so did Vice President Biden, that had I continued to oversee the Burisma investigation, we would have found the facts about the corrupt activities that they were engaging in. That included both Hunter Biden and Devon Archer and others."

accusation.

"I do not want to deal in unproven facts, but my firm personal conviction is that, yes, this was the case," he added. "They were being bribed. And the fact that Joe Biden gave away $1 billion in U.S. money in exchange for my dismissal, my firing – isn't that alone a case of corruption?"

JOE BIDEN ALLEGEDLY PAID $5M BY BURISMA EXECUTIVE AS PART OF A BRIBERY SCHEME, ACCORDING TO FBI DOCUMENT

"For years, these false claims have been debunked, and no matter how much air time Fox gives them, they will remain false," White House spokesperson Ian Sams responded to Fox News. "Fox is giving a platform for these lies to a former Ukrainian prosecutor general whose office his own deputy called 'a hotbed of corruption,' drawing demands for reform not only from then-Vice President Biden but also from U.S. diplomats, international partners, and Republican senators like Ron Johnson."

One year after leaving the White House, Biden boasted about how he personally put pressure on Poroshenko to fire Shokin. He explained that he told Ukrainian officials the U.S. would withhold up to $1 billion in aid money earmarked for their country if Shokin remained in his position.

"I said, 'Nah, I'm not going to – we're not going to give you the billion dollars.' They said, 'You have no authority. You're not the president. The president said –.' I said, 'Call him.'" Biden remarked during a January 2018 event hosted by the Council on Foreign Relations. "I said, 'I'm telling you, you're not getting the $1 billion.'"

"I said, 'You're not getting the billion. I'm going to be leaving here,'" Biden continued. "I looked at them and said, 'I'm leaving in six hours. If the prosecutor is not fired, you're not getting the money.' Well, son of a bitch, he got fired. And they put in place someone who was solid at the time."

Shokin, though, said he was probing Burisma and its owner Mykola Zlochevsky at the time of his ouster. In February 2016, one month before Shokin was fired, his office filed a legal petition to seize Zlochevsky's property, including four homes, two pieces of property and a Rolls-Royce sports car, the Kyiv Post reported at the time.

The former prosecutor general told Fox News that Burisma illegally produced, sold and utilized natural gas supplies.

His investigation took place while Hunter Biden served on the Burisma board of directors. Hunter joined the firm in 2014 and departed in 2019 after his term on its board expired.

Hunter's former business partner Devon Archer, who also served on Burisma's board, testified in a closed-door House Oversight Committee hearing in July that, amid pressure from Shokin's office and other entities investigating Burisma, company leaders turned to Hunter for help. Archer said Hunter "called D.C." to help get Shokin fired.

EXCLUSIVE: PERSON ALLEGING BIDEN CRIMINAL BRIBERY SCHEME IS 'HIGHLY CREDIBLE' FBI SOURCE USED SINCE OBAMA ADMIN: SOURCE

"Devon Archer's testimony today confirms Joe Biden lied to the American people when he said he had no knowledge about his son's business dealings and was not involved," Oversight Chairman James Comer, R-Ky., said after Archer's testimony. "Joe Biden was 'the brand' that his son sold around the world to enrich the Biden family."

"When Burisma's owner was facing pressure from the Ukrainian prosecutor investigating the company for corruption, Archer testified that Burisma executives asked Hunter to 'call D.C.' after a Burisma board meeting in Dubai," he added. "Why did Joe Biden lie to the American people about his family's business dealings and his involvement? It begs the question, what else he is hiding from the American people?"

Fox News Digital recently reported that, on Nov. 2, 2015, Burisma executive Vadym Pozharski emailed Hunter Biden, Archer and fellow Hunter associate Eric Schwerin about a "revised proposal, contract and initial invoice for Burisma Holdings," from lobbying firm Blue Star Strategies. Hunter reportedly connected Burisma with Blue Star Strategies to help the energy firm fight corruption charges levied against Zlochevsky, the company's owner.

Pozharski emphasized in his email that the "ultimate purpose" of the agreement with Blue Star Strategies was to shut down "any cases/pursuits against Nikolay in Ukraine," referring to Zlochevsky, who also went by Nikolay.

"Evidence makes it clear that Hunter Biden was only appointed to Burisma's board of directors because of his last name and family's network," Comer told Fox News Digital after the report.

However, in a statement to Fox News, the White House pointed to indications that Shokin was fired because he had been too soft on corruption.

The White House also stated Shokin's office had not been investigating Burisma or Hunter at the time of his ouster in March 2016, and it pointed to three reports published within weeks of each other in 2019 by The Washington Post, Associated Press and New York Times stating Shokin's office wasn't investigating Burisma.

After Shokin's ouster, The New York Times reported that Shokin had been criticized in Ukraine for not prosecuting officials, businessmen and lawmakers for corruption while Viktor Yanukovich was president. The U.S. government and International Monetary Fund had believed in 2016 that Shokin wasn't doing enough to fight corruption, which ran rampant throughout Ukraine.

Both former Assistant Secretary of State for European and Eurasian Affairs Victoria Nuland and former Deputy Assistant Secretary for European and Eurasian Affairs Bridget Brink testified during a Senate hearing in 2020 that Shokin's decision not to pursue a Burisma investigation or root out corruption elsewhere were reasons for his firing.

"It was our conclusion by then that, in fact, the dismissal of Prosecutor Shokin would be counter to Burisma's interests, because not only was he not pursuing the Burisma case, he was responsible for protecting those who had helped get the case dismissed," Nuland said.

She also said, though, that the U.S. government was "dissatisfied that past investigations of Burisma had not been brought to conclusion."

BOMBSHELL: Former Ukraine Prosecutor Says Joe and Hunter Biden DID Take BRIBES and Were Behind His Firing In EXPLOSIVE New Interview

By Pamela Geller - on August 25, 2023

America has to look to Ukraine to find an honest prosecutor. We are all washed up. Nothing will come of these high crimes.

Former Ukrainian Prosecutor-General Viktor Shokin is accusing Joe and Hunter Biden of 'corruption' – saying they accepted large money 'bribes' from Burisma and were behind his firing.

Biden was rewarded for his treasonous corruption. Trump was impeached for questioning it.

In December 2015, then-Vice President Joe Biden delivered a speech to the Ukrainian Rada during which he touted his anti-corruption efforts in the country and urged an overhaul and reform of the office of the general prosecutor.

A few months later in March 2016, Joe Biden is alleged to have threatened to withhold $1 billion in aid to Ukraine if Shokin specifically was not fired for corruption – and he was shortly thereafter.

Years later, Biden actually bragged about his firing at a Council on Foreign Relations event in 2018.

Biden said that he would withhold a billion dollars in U.S. aid if the Ukrainians did not agree to fire Shokin.

‘I looked at them and said, ‘I’m leaving in six hours. If the prosecutor is not fired, you’re not getting the money,’ Biden said.

‘Well, son of a b*. He got fired,’ he continued.

Fired Ukrainian prosecutor believes Bidens received bribes

Brian Kilmeade spoke exclusively with former Ukraine prosecutor general Viktor Shokin, who says his firing was a ‘case of corruption’ in response to investigating Burisma. The full interview airs Saturday at 8 p.m. ET. on ‘One Nation.’

EXCLUSIVE: Former Ukrainian Prosecutor General Viktor Shokin told Fox News in an exclusive sit-down interview that he was fired during the Obama administration for investigating Burisma, the energy firm whose board Hunter Biden served on.

Prosecutor fired on Joe Biden's orders says then-VP DID take bribe!

Interview with Viktor Shokin on tap this weekend

Viktor Shokin is the prosecutor in Ukraine that Joe Biden, as vice president and in charge of Ukraine relations for Barack Obama, demanded be fired.

Biden later bragged about it:

Joe Biden Admits to Getting Ukrainian Prosecutor ...

The situation that developed was that the U.S. was working to help Ukraine eliminate corruption, and one of Shokin's targets was Burisma, a gas company that was paying Joe Biden's son, Hunter, $1 million a year, ostensibly to be on its board but, as evidence suggests, allegedly to get rid of investigations.

The U.S. had concluded Shokin was making progress, but Joe  abruptly overruled that conclusion, insisting Shokin be removed, and threatened Ukraine with the loss of a billion dollars of American aid if he was not fired.

Those bribes already have been documented in an FBI report that said a trusted confidential source confirmed they happened,  billion to Joe and $5 million to Hunter.

A report Friday in the Daily Mail cites the coming interview, and clips that it obtained from that.

WND is now on Trump's Truth Social! Follow us

@WNDNews

The report said Shokin described the Bidens as the ones guilty of "corruption," and said they took "bribes" from Burisma.

"I do not want to deal in unproven facts. But my firm personal conviction is that yes, this was the case. They were being bribed," Shokin explained, according to the Daily Mail report.

The report said the full interview will air Saturday with Brian Kilmeade.

The report said Biden's White House is accusing Fox of "giving a 'platform to lies'" with the interview.

Shokin also noted, "The fact that Joe Biden gave away $1 billion in U.S. money in exchange for my dismissal – my firing – isn't that alone a case of corruption?"

The Ukraine scandal is just one of a number hitting the Biden cal machine at this point. Joe Biden also is facing accusations, with evidence, he was actively involved in Hunter's international business schemes, which appear to have brought some $20 million to nine family members over a few years.

And the business apparently involved selling access to Joe Biden.

Further, Joe Biden's Department of Justice has been accused, once again with evidence, of becoming an attack weapon for Democrats by repeatedly targeting President Donald Trump with indictments, including misdemeanors that somehow become felonies, and partisan cases over possession of presidential documents, and more.

Trump is accused of felonies for having government documents in his home from his presidency. Mike Pence and Joe Biden both also had government documents, but have faced no charges.

Joe Biden's threat to get Shokin fired came in his own words: "I looked at them and said, 'I'm leaving in six hours. If the prosecutor is not fired, you're not getting the money.' Well, son of a b*, he got fired."

Nu lijkt het erop dat CNN een nieuwe poging doet. Het is wel begrijpelijk, omdat een president die de economie in de soep draait nog nooit herkozen is, en zeker niet als hij ook nog eens een oorlog verliest. Biden kan niet op een eerlijke manier herkozen worden, maar het probleem voor de DEMS is dat ze niemand anders hebben. Kamela is zo mogelijk nog dommer en spreekt nog onbegrijpelijker dan de seniel die nu de baas is in naam. Kevin Newsome van Californië heeft zijn uiterlijk mee, maar heeft de staat die ooit de vierde economie van de wereld was veranderd in een Derde Wereld land met een geweldsniveau dat niet onder doet voor dat van Zuid-Afrika en die fatsoenlijke mensen nu massaal ontvluchten.

De enige manier om Biden aan de macht te houden is door of helemaal geen verkiezingen meer te houden, bijvoorbeeld door de noodtoestand uit te roepen, of door weer per post te laten stemmen omdat het land in Lockdown is. Voor beide opties hebben ze verschillende mogelijkheden achter de hand. Een burgeroorlog is niet ver weg meer en er worden openlijk plannen besproken voor klimaatlockdowns of nieuwe covid-lockdowns.

The Daily Wire:

Jake Tapper van CNN gaf vrijdagmiddag toe dat Donald Trump 100% gelijk had en dat Joe Biden tegen de natie loog over de buitenlandse zakelijke deals van Hunter Biden toen de twee de kwestie behandelden tijdens een presidentieel debat in 2020.

Tapper maakte deel uit van een panel dat sprak over het Biden-familieschandaal dat de president en zijn regering in de problemen bracht, terwijl Republikeinen in het Congres zich verdiepen in Hunter's buitenlandse zakelijke transacties en de vermeende "invloed" van zijn vader bij het binnenhalen van meer dan $ 20 miljoen aan steekpenningen sinds hij in 2009 aantrad als vice-president.

Hij wees op een verhaal in de Washington Post waarin Hunter Biden voor de rechtbank toegaf dat hij "2,4 miljoen dollar aan inkomsten verdiende in 2017 en $ 2,2 miljoen aan inkomsten in 2018 – waarvan de meeste afkomstig waren van Chinese of Oekraïense belangen."

"En dit druist regelrecht in tegen wat Joe Biden zei in het debat in 2020 met Donald Trump", zei Tapper voordat hij een clip afspeelde waarin Biden ontkende dat Hunter geld verdiende met Chinese zakelijke transacties, terwijl Trump Biden verweet dat zijn zoon "een fortuin verdiende" in Oekraïne, in China, in Moskou."

"Trump had gelijk", voegde Tapper eraan toe. "Ik bedoel, [Hunter] verdiende een fortuin met China, en Joe Biden had het mis. Ik weet niet of hij erover loog. Het is hem misschien niet verteld door Hunter, maar deze blinde vlek is een probleem."

Het idee dat Biden er niet van wist is absurd. Hij staat zelf – trots – op beeld dat hij in Oekraïne was om het corruptie onderzoek daar naar zijn zoon te stoppen.

Happy Anniversary to Joe Biden's Quid Pro Quo (Bribery!)

Two years ago today, Joe Biden admitted his quid pro quo (bribery!), when he threatened to withhold aid unless a Ukrainian prosecutor was fired.
